NYC's Stylish Stay

Duane Street Hotel. Amid Tribeca's historic warehouse buildings and trendy art galleries sits the Duane Street Hotel, a fashionable addition to the neighborhood. Inside this intimate property, the 'beca restaurant takes up most of the lobby. Upstairs, comfortable rooms with either soft lilac or green apple walls are swathed in light, which streams through loft-like windows. Hardwood floors, flat-screen TVs, and compact fold-up desks give the rooms a modern, playful feel, while cashmere throws and fresh flowers add touches of romance. Sophisticated bathrooms feature slate floors, showers with half-glass doors, and "We Live Like This" brand amenities. Don't fret about the lack of a fitness center. Guests are invited to use complimentary passes to work out at a nearby Equinox. Pros: great location; in-room spa treatments available through Euphoria Spa Tribeca; turndown service with Jacques Torres Chocolates. Cons: no DVD players in rooms; restaurant bar has only five seats. 130 Duane St. Tribeca. 212/964-6400. www.duanestreethotel.com. 45 rooms. In-room facilities: safe, Wi-Fi (no fee).
